BUSINESS PARTNERS

This gorgeous home first came to us as a large-but-typical house, newly purchased by young parents of a growing family, who were seeking a creative, quality result for their “forever” home. Beginning with the kitchen and bath, we collaborated on an extended scope that would include a cohesive design for all areas of the main floor, creating new surprises at every turn. Even the family dog got in on it, finding his private retreat behind a custom “stable door”-styled pocket door that allows him to keep an eye on the family even while safely contained in his own room!
