This charming, historic Tudor home underwent a total remodel to make it much more functional. The kitchen cabinetry in-filled nicely around the existing window, sink, and stove which remained very close to their original locations. We were also able to re-use existing doors and recreated the arched doorway to keep the character of this space. The architecture and attention to detail are what keep the design within the character of the home! This Tudor has been brought up-to-date and is ready to serve this modern family while maintaining the charm of yesterday!
