BUSINESS PARTNERS

The client lived on a beautiful ranch. They had an existing stone and wood trellis outdoor kitchen that they wanted to expand upon and a kidney shaped pool to be replaced.

The wish list: shade areas without blocking first story windows, a place to gather/entertain, cooking stations, and a pool that would not interfere with the view of the pond.

A two story porch with a low covered area became the concept. A two sided fireplace, one side for seating/gathering the other for cooking. A restaurant grill insert and a whole hog pit were included.

A true back yard retreat.
