Just 4 steps away from the 2nd floor hallway, this family-friendly space was created from unused attic space. It is easily accessible, private, and comfortable for gathering, crafts, or late-night movie marathons. Straight-laid large format plank tile visually lengthens the shower in the new ¾ bath. The darker tile in the niche draws the eye upward, adding dimension to the small space and compliments the upgraded vanity. The handrail and spindles on the short flight of stairs were matched to the existing in the adjacent stairway, making the transition blend beautifully with the style and elegance of the home.
